

Presentation of the book

The Craft of Indo-Arabic Numerals:

How Practical Arithmetic Shaped Commerce and Mathematics in Western Europe, 1200-1600

By Raffaele Danna
(Harvard University Press)

Greetings and Introduction

Nicola Vitiello, Rector of Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies

Andrea Roventini, Professor of Economics and Director of the Institute of Economics (Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies)

Author

Raffaele Danna, Assistant Professor of Economic History (Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies)

Comments

Maxine Berg, Professor emerita of History (University of Warwick, Fellow of the British Academy)

Michele Benzi, Professor of Numerical Analysis (Scuola Normale Superiore)

Alessandro Nuvolari, Professor of Economic History (Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies)

Collective discussion

The Craft of Indo-Arabic Numerals

HOW PRACTICAL ARITHMETIC
SHAPED COMMERCE
and MATHEMATICS in
WESTERN EUROPE, 1200-1600

RAFFAELE DANNA

October 22nd, 2026

H. 18.00

Aula Magna / ONLINE

MORE INFO

